You are really going to fall for this magnificent 4 bedroom, 3.5 bath home! If you love having your home be the place where everyone comes to socialize, this house is for you! It is truly made for entertaining, even if it is just entertaining your own family. The exterior is really special and inviting, and once you step through the doors, you're welcomed home by a grand entrance, large staircase, and second-story balcony. From the formal study, to the formal dining room, oversized powder room, and to the dual-entry from your extended garage, you'll be amazed at the space offered in this home. A large open living room and kitchen features a vast granite-topped island and breakfast nook. The enormous mud-room style utility room and luxurious master suite with large walk-in closet cap off the picture-perfect first story. Upstairs, you'll find 3 additional oversized secondary bedrooms with walk-in closets, one featuring a private in suite bath. Your family will spend hours of time together in the game room or media room watching movies and playing games.

Additional options only: 42" painted kitchen cabinets, painted flat panel doors throughout, decorative tile backsplash, additional LED recessed lighting, and stainless steel appliances
