Stylecraft is excited to announce its first community, The Village at Elm Creek, in Troy, Texas! The town is rich in history, dating back to 1882 when it was established around a railroad station. It is said that for a short time in the 90's, Troy dubbed itself "Troy Aikman, Texas," to pay homage to the Dallas Cowboys NFL team and its Super-Bowl winning QB.

The Village at Elm Creek will be along I-35, just a 15 minute drive to the heart of Temple for those who work at Scott and White. A thirty minute drive away, spend some time in the sunshine at Belton Lake. Enjoy local food at Uncle Cal's Smokehouse or Jalisco's Troy Mexican Restaurant. In 2021, Troy High School was given the "College Success Award" for excellence in preparing students to continue their education and beyond. Go Trojans! A great place to raise a family, the small town of Troy, TX also has their annual BBQ cook-off and their beloved weekly Farmer's Market.
